Termination of pregnancy is permitted in all Australian states and territories under various circumstances after 20 weeks of pregnancy. This is referred to as a 'late-term abortion.' Sometimes a baby is born alive in a 'late-term abortion' procedure. Which is closer to your own view about babies born alive after a late-term abortion procedure? ROTATE 1-2

1. They must be given medical care to the same extent as other premature babies. This would be life-sustaining care if they are viable and compatible with life.
2. They should not be given medical care and can be allowed to die
3. Don't know
