B1	Australians now have a "right to disconnect" under a new law just passed by Federal Parliament. The law protects workers from being penalised for failing to respond to unreasonable phone calls, emails, texts or other messages from employers outside of work hours while allowing employers to contact workers out of work hours when it is genuinely necessary. Which is generally closest to your view? Single select; ROTATE 1-2
	1 I support Australians having a right to disconnect from work outside of hours.
	2 I do not support Australians having a right to disconnect from work outside of hours.
B2	Leader of the Opposition Peter Dutton has pledged to overturn the "right to disconnect" law. Does this make you Single select; ROTATE 1-3
1	More likely to consider voting for the Coalition
	Less likely to consider voting for the Coalition
	Make no difference to how I vote.
